

PLOT and THEME TRACKER

Name _____

Date _____

Pd _____

Title: _____

Author _____

Type _____

Brainstorm five topics that can be found within the work. Think of character actions, words, and thoughts. Think of repeating elements, within the work. The narrator also often gives hints:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Choose the topic that has the strongest link to the story and write a theme sentence. Your sentence must be complex in nature and must be general, not specific to the story.

Find three examples of contextual evidence within the work. Prove that your theme is central to the story by finding quotes. Evidence can come from character words, actions, and thoughts . The narrator's comments are also a good source of evidence.

1.

2.

3.

PLOT and THEME TRACKER

Name _____

Date _____

Pd _____

CLIMAX!

RISING ACTION

FALLING ACTION

CONFLICT

EXPOSITION

CONCLUSION

BACKGROUND

CHARACTERS SETTING

CONSEQUENCES
REVELATIONS OUTCOMES

Handwriting practice lines for the plot and theme tracker. The page contains 15 horizontal blue lines. The first line is at the top right, below the 'Name' field. The next two lines are to the right of the 'CLIMAX!' label. The next three lines are to the left of the 'CLIMAX!' label. The next three lines are to the right of the 'CONFLICT' label. The next three lines are to the left of the 'CONFLICT' label. The next three lines are to the right of the 'CONCLUSION' label. The final three lines are to the left of the 'CONCLUSION' label.